

Word Reporter

Your job is to look up definitions for words that some class members may not know and create an excellent sentence using each. (Do not do the words that are already on the study guide).

During Class, Do the Following:

1. Make sure everyone copies down each word and definition on their vocabulary sheet
2. Together with the class create a new sentence and write this on your vocabulary sheet

You can use the back if you do more than three words.
